

Maria Strandberg is appointed CFO at Amasten Fastighets AB (publ)

The Board of Samhällsbyggnadsbolaget i Norden AB (publ) ("SBB") has decided to evaluate the conditions for forming a new independent company with a focus on residential properties (the "Housing Portfolio") which will then be distributed to the shareholders of SBB, according to Lex Asea. The parent company in the new group will be Amasten Fastighets AB (publ).

Maria comes most recently from the role of CFO at Castellum and has previously worked in various senior positions within Kungsleden since 2015. She has a degree in economics and has worked as an accountant at EY, among other things. Maria will be part of the company's group management and will take up her role in the spring.

"It feels great to welcome Maria to the new housing company and our management team. Maria is a committed leader with a strategic focus and long experience of working in a listed environment," says Ylva Sarby Westman, CEO Amasten Fastighets AB.

"I look forward, as CFO, to developing the new company and creating the best conditions for clear and transparent financial reporting and analysis," says Maria Strandberg, incoming CFO for Amasten Fastighets AB.
